

MONTAGNE BLANCHE

Coteaux du Vendômois Gris Montagne Blanche

AOP Coteaux du Vendômois, Vallée de la Loire et Centre, France

On the Montagne Blanche, a rocky promontory of light-coloured tufa, the keep of the Vendôme castle was once erected. The "capital" of the Pagus Vindocinensis, Vendôme is bathed by the Loir, which is divided into several branches and on whose banks the Côteaux du Vendômois vineyards are located.

PRESENTATION

The grape varieties are dominated by Pineau d'Aunis, which expresses all the identity and originality of this "Gris" of the Vendômois.

LOCATION

The vineyard is located in the north of Touraine.

TERROIR

The "Coteaux du Vendômois" Appellation Protégée area extends over limestone hillsides topped with flint clay and enjoys a good exposure.

WINEMAKING

Direct pneumatic pressing, fermentation at 20°C

AGEING

Aged on fine lees then bottled early.

VARIETAL

Pineau d'Aunis 100%

SERVING

Served chilled (7°C).

VISUAL APPEARANCE

Pale pink color.

AT NOSE

Fresh nose with fruity notes (strawberry, grapefruit) and white pepper.

ON THE PALATE

Nice liveliness in the mouth, full and spicy, lingering aromas.

FOOD PAIRINGS

A perfect accompaniment to Asian cuisine (sushi), crab accras, tagine, lemon chicken or avocado cocktail and shrimp.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

LE GUIDE
HACHETTE
DES VINS

2 étoiles
"édition 2024
millésime 2022"

Le Guide Hachette des Vins

